SENATE BILL 5707

State of Washington

60th Legislature

2007 Regular Session

By Senators Parlette, Haugen, Swecker, Stevens, Holmquist, Benton and Kilmer

Read first time 01/29/2007. Referred to Committee on Government Operations & Elections.

1 AN ACT Relating to limiting, for property tax purposes, the maximum 2 assessed value of a residence for persons sixty-one and older; amending 3 RCW 84.36.381; and creating a new section.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

5 Sec. 1. RCW 84.36.381 and 2005 c 248 s 2 are each amended to read 6 as follows:

7 A person shall be exempt from any legal obligation to pay all or a 8 portion of the amount of excess and regular real property taxes due and 9 payable in the year following the year in which a claim is filed, and 10 thereafter, in accordance with the following:

11 (1) The property taxes must have been imposed upon a residence
12 which was occupied by the person claiming the exemption as a principal
13 place of residence as of the time of filing: PROVIDED, That any person 14 who sells, transfers, or is displaced from his or her residence may 15 transfer his or her exemption status to a replacement residence, but no 16 claimant shall receive an exemption on more than one residence in any 17 year: PROVIDED FURTHER, That confinement of the person to a hospital,
18 nursing home, boarding home, or adult family home shall not disqualify 19 the claim of exemption if:

1 (a) The residence is temporarily unoccupied;

2 (b) The residence is occupied by a spouse and/or a person
3 financially dependent on the claimant for support; or

4 (c) The residence is rented for the purpose of paying nursing home,
5 hospital, boarding home, or adult family home costs;

6 (2) The person claiming the exemption must have owned, at the time 7 of filing, in fee, as a life estate, or by contract purchase, the 8 residence on which the property taxes have been imposed or if the 9 person claiming the exemption lives in a cooperative housing
10 association, corporation, or partnership, such person must own a share 11 therein representing the unit or portion of the structure in which he 12 or she resides. For purposes of this subsection, a residence owned by 13 a marital community or owned by cotenants shall be deemed to be owned 14 by each spouse or cotenant, and any lease for life shall be deemed a 15 life estate;

16 (3) The person claiming the exemption must be (a) sixty-one years
17 of age or older on December 31st of the year in which the exemption 18 claim is filed, or must have been, at the time of filing, retired from 19 regular gainful employment by reason of disability, or (b) a veteran of 20 the armed forces of the United States with one hundred percent service-21 connected disability as provided in 42 U.S.C. Sec. 423 (d)(1)(A) as 22 amended prior to January 1, 2005. However, any surviving spouse of a 23 person who was receiving an exemption at the time of the person's death 24 shall qualify if the surviving spouse is fifty-seven years of age or 25 older and otherwise meets the requirements of this section;

26 (4) The amount that the person shall be exempt from an obligation
27 to pay shall be calculated on the basis of combined disposable income, 28 as defined in RCW 84.36.383. If the person claiming the exemption was 29 retired for two months or more of the assessment year, the combined 30 disposable income of such person shall be calculated by multiplying the 31 average monthly combined disposable income of such person during the 32 months such person was retired by twelve. If the income of the person 33 claiming exemption is reduced for two or more months of the assessment 34 year by reason of the death of the person's spouse, or when other 35 substantial changes occur in disposable income that are likely to 36 continue for an indefinite period of time, the combined disposable
37 income of such person shall be calculated by multiplying the average 38 monthly combined disposable income of such person after such

1 occurrences by twelve. If it is necessary to estimate income to comply 2 with this subsection, the assessor may require confirming documentation
3 of such income prior to May 31 of the year following application;

4 (5)(a) A person who otherwise qualifies under this section and has 5 a combined disposable income of thirty-five thousand dollars or less 6 shall be exempt from all excess property taxes; and

7 (b)(i) A person who otherwise qualifies under this section and has 8 a combined disposable income of thirty thousand dollars or less but 9 greater than twenty-five thousand dollars shall be exempt from all 10 regular property taxes on the greater of fifty thousand dollars or 11 thirty-five percent of the valuation of his or her residence, but not 12 to exceed seventy thousand dollars of the valuation of his or her 13 residence; or

14 (ii) A person who otherwise qualifies under this section and has a 15 combined disposable income of twenty-five thousand dollars or less 16 shall be exempt from all regular property taxes on the greater of sixty 17 thousand dollars or sixty percent of the valuation of his or her 18 residence;

19 (6) For a person who otherwise qualifies under this section and has 20 a combined disposable income of thirty-five thousand dollars or less, 21 the valuation of the residence shall be the assessed value of the 22 residence on the later of January 1, 1995, or January 1st of the 23 assessment year the person first qualifies under this section. If the 24 person subsequently fails to qualify under this section only for one 25 year because of high income, this same valuation shall be used upon 26 requalification. If the person fails to qualify for more than one year 27 in succession because of high income or fails to qualify for any other 28 reason, the valuation upon requalification shall be the assessed value
29 on January 1st of the assessment year in which the person requalifies.
30 If the person transfers the exemption under this section to a different 31 residence, the valuation of the different residence shall be the 32 assessed value of the different residence on January 1st of the 33 assessment year in which the person transfers the exemption.

34 In no event may the valuation under this subsection be greater than 35 the true and fair value of the residence on January 1st of the 36 assessment year.

37 This subsection does not apply to subsequent improvements to the 38 property in the year in which the improvements are made. Subsequent

1 improvements to the property shall be added to the value otherwise 2 determined under this subsection at their true and fair value in the 3 year in which they are made;

4 (7) For a person that meets all of the qualifications in 5 subsections (1) and (2) of this section and the age qualifications in 6 subsection (3)(a) of this section, but does not meet the qualifications 7 in subsections (4), (5), and (6) of this section, the valuation of the 8 residence shall be determined based on the following:

9 (a) For taxes due in 2008 the valuation of the residence shall be 10 the assessed value of the residence on the later of January 1, 2001, or 11 January 1st of the assessment year the person first qualifies under 12 this subsection.

13 (b) For each subsequent year, the assessed value of the residence
14 shall be the lesser of the current appraised value or one hundred five 15 percent of the previous years assessed value.

16 (c) This subsection does not apply to subsequent improvements to 17 the property in the year in which the improvements are made.
18 Subsequent improvements to the property shall be added to the value
19 otherwise determined under this subsection at their true and fair value 20 in the year in which they are made.

21 NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This act applies to taxes levied in 2007 for 22 collection in 2008 and thereafter.
